

Thank God for all these blessings, and especially for the gift of salvation through Jesus Christ!

Saturday

Please read Colossians 1:15-23 to prepare yourself for Communion Sunday.

Ask God to prepare your heart so that you can worship him in Spirit and truth as you come together with your brothers and sisters tomorrow. Pray for both of our Sunday services, that they will clearly show God's grace and truth to all who attend.

Thinking Ahead: How to Stay Excited About Heaven

"Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moth and rust do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also." Matthew 6:19-21

Daily Meditations

Daily Bible studies and questions for reflection on today’s topic.

This week’s memory verse:

“But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moth and rust do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal.”
Matthew 6:20

Monday

Please read Matthew 6:19-20. Why does Jesus say we shouldn’t focus primarily on building earthly stores of wealth? How can earthly wealth be “destroyed” or “stolen”? Yesterday we mentioned there are three common lures of the treasure trap: security, satisfaction, and significance. Which of these tends to lure you into focusing too much on earthly treasure? Why? Earthly treasure is useful for certain things. But when we try to use it to gain the three goals mentioned above, it falls far short. Thank the Lord for all his good gifts to you. Ask him to show you ways today you can “store up treasures in heaven.”

Tuesday

Please read Matthew 6:21-23. What do you think Jesus means when he says, “where your treasure is, there your heart will be also”? How does this relate to all you’ve learned during this series on heaven? What do you think verses 22-23 mean? Read Exodus 20:17. How do Jesus’ words about your eyes relate to this part of the Ten Commandments? How does coveting contribute to the “treasure trap” many people find themselves in? Read Ecclesiastes 4:6. How does this verse help us escape covetousness and greed? How have you been trapped by money—through debt, consuming envy, workaholicism, or some other way? How did you get free? Ask God to help your heart focus on heavenly, not earthly, treasure. Ask him for wisdom to discern when you are developing a dangerous relationship with money and possessions. Thank him for his priceless gifts of love and grace!

Wednesday

Please read Matthew 6:24. This verse makes me stop and think every time I read it! I ask myself: Who is it I am really serving? Jesus points out that humans will always serve something. Whether it’s your work, your money, your addictions, your resentments, your pleasure, your God—there will always be a central driving force to your life. Spend some time considering: Who or what have you served at times during your life? What are you serving now? If you discover that you really are serving another master, take time right now for some realignment: Ask God to once again be your only Lord!

Thursday

Please read 1 Timothy 6:6-11. These verses deal with the secret of contentment: Thankfulness and generosity. What is the core of Paul’s advice in verses 6-9? Is this advice easy or hard for you to follow? When are you least likely to be content? According to verses 9 and 10, what can happen when you pursue riches? Instead of riches, what are we to pursue, according to verse 11? Ask God today for a spirit of thankfulness and contentment. Ask him to open your eyes and help you see the good gifts he lavishes on you! Ask him to help you be content with these.

Friday

Please read 1 Timothy 6:17-19. According to these verses, why should we not put our hope in wealth? What should we do instead? According to verse 17, what does God do for us? Write down at least 7 things “God richly provides for your enjoyment” that you might easily overlook:
